

Sept. 24th and 25th: Washington State Service Rifle and South District Championship, and Civilian Marksmanship Program Excellence in Competition match was held Saturday and Sunday at Rattlesnake Mtn. Shooting Facility, near Richland, WA. Weather was hot with mild winds on Saturday. Sunday was a different story with winds reaching over 30 mph in the morning and slowing to about 15 mph in the afternoon. The team match was shortened and two target carriers were put out of commission by the wind. The party tent used on Saturday for an after match BBQ was completely uprooted and carried nearly down to the canyon road from the 900 yd. line.

2011 Washington State Service Rifle and South District Champion was National Air Guardsman Sgt. James Patterson of Spokane with a score of 783-35x out of 800. In the WSRPA "Leg" match, which is an NMC extracted from the 80 RMC, Charles Deilke was high among the 22 non-distinguished shooters for an award of eight points and Jerry Bentler second for six points.

Two Legs were awarded in the EIC match one to highest scorer Jerry Bentler of Renton and Dan Stone of Castle Rock. Leg points are accumulated by competitive shooters for national recognition as a distinguished marksman.
